My dear friends,

The Society of Genito urinary Surgeons of AP and TS Organises its yearly conference with a delegate strength about 450 in number. They include practicing consultants, teaching faculty of Urology, postgraduate students and spouses of all these groups. In addition to scientific deliberations, trade presence is always active and vibrant. This year's conference of AP & TS SOGUS 2023 is being conducted on 17th 18th & 19th of November 2023 at Visakhapatnam.

The conference venue in the city outskirts, serene and surrounded by luxurious resorts and easily approachable. The Conference is going to have high quality scientific content with live and semi-live surgeries as well as lectures by eminent speakers from India and abroad. The trade exhibition will be participated by endoscopy and surgical equipment companies, pharmaceutical industry, hospital equipment companies and establishments related to hospital management in Urology field.

We have a day long pre conference work shop on 17th November 2023@ AINU Vizag, Live transmission to Hotel 4 points by Sheraton, Vizag.
